ME?

The Conversion of Paul: From Blindness to Light

The story of Paul's conversion stands as one of Christianity's most dramatic testimonies of transformation. In Acts 26, Paul recounts his fierce persecution of Christians, believing he was serving God by opposing the name of Jesus. His zeal was genuine but misguided—he was spiritually blind despite his religious education and passion. The encounter on the Damascus road shattered Paul's certainty. Christ's question, "Why do you persecute me?" revealed a profound truth: in attacking Christians, Paul was attacking Christ himself. The physical blindness that followed symbolized his spiritual condition all along. Like Bartimaeus in Mark 10, who sat by the roadside unable to see, Paul needed divine intervention to truly perceive reality. Both men were blind, both cried out, and both received sight through an encounter with divine power. Bartimaeus's persistence—refusing to be silenced by the crowd—mirrors the unstoppable force of grace that pursued Paul despite his resistance. When Jesus asked Bartimaeus, "What do you want me to do for you?" it wasn't mere formality; it was an invitation to articulate one's deepest need. God meets us in our blindness, offers sight, and commissions us to share that light with others.

Youth

Youth Alpha: A Joyful and Welcoming Community

What a joyful and encouraging start to the year for our youth ministry! Last week, 25 young people gathered, shared a meal together, and stayed on well beyond the programme because the fellowship was so rich and life-giving. Laughter, conversation, and a genuine sense of belonging filled the space. That young people chose to remain simply to be together speaks volumes about the safe, joyful, and welcoming environment being nurtured. We give thanks to God for this grace-filled moment and for the dedication of the leaders and team who are helping to create a community where our youth feel seen, valued, and at home. Youth Alpha continues this Friday, young people are warmly encouraged not to miss it!

ACTIVE AND ACCOUNTABLE PARISH LEADERSHIP

The F&P met recently and engaged in careful, hands-on oversight of a wide range of parish matters, including worship and streaming needs, property maintenance, facilities improvement, financial sustainability, and future planning. Practical decisions were taken, responsibilities assigned, and follow-ups agreed upon to ensure progress across projects such as drainage, lighting, security, training spaces, water backup, and financial systems. This reflects an active, collaborative leadership that is meeting regularly, attending to both immediate needs and long-term stewardship, and working faithfully to care for the parish's resources. As we continue this work, Parish Council will meet next week Thursday, and we ask you to please keep all our leaders and deliberations in your prayers.
